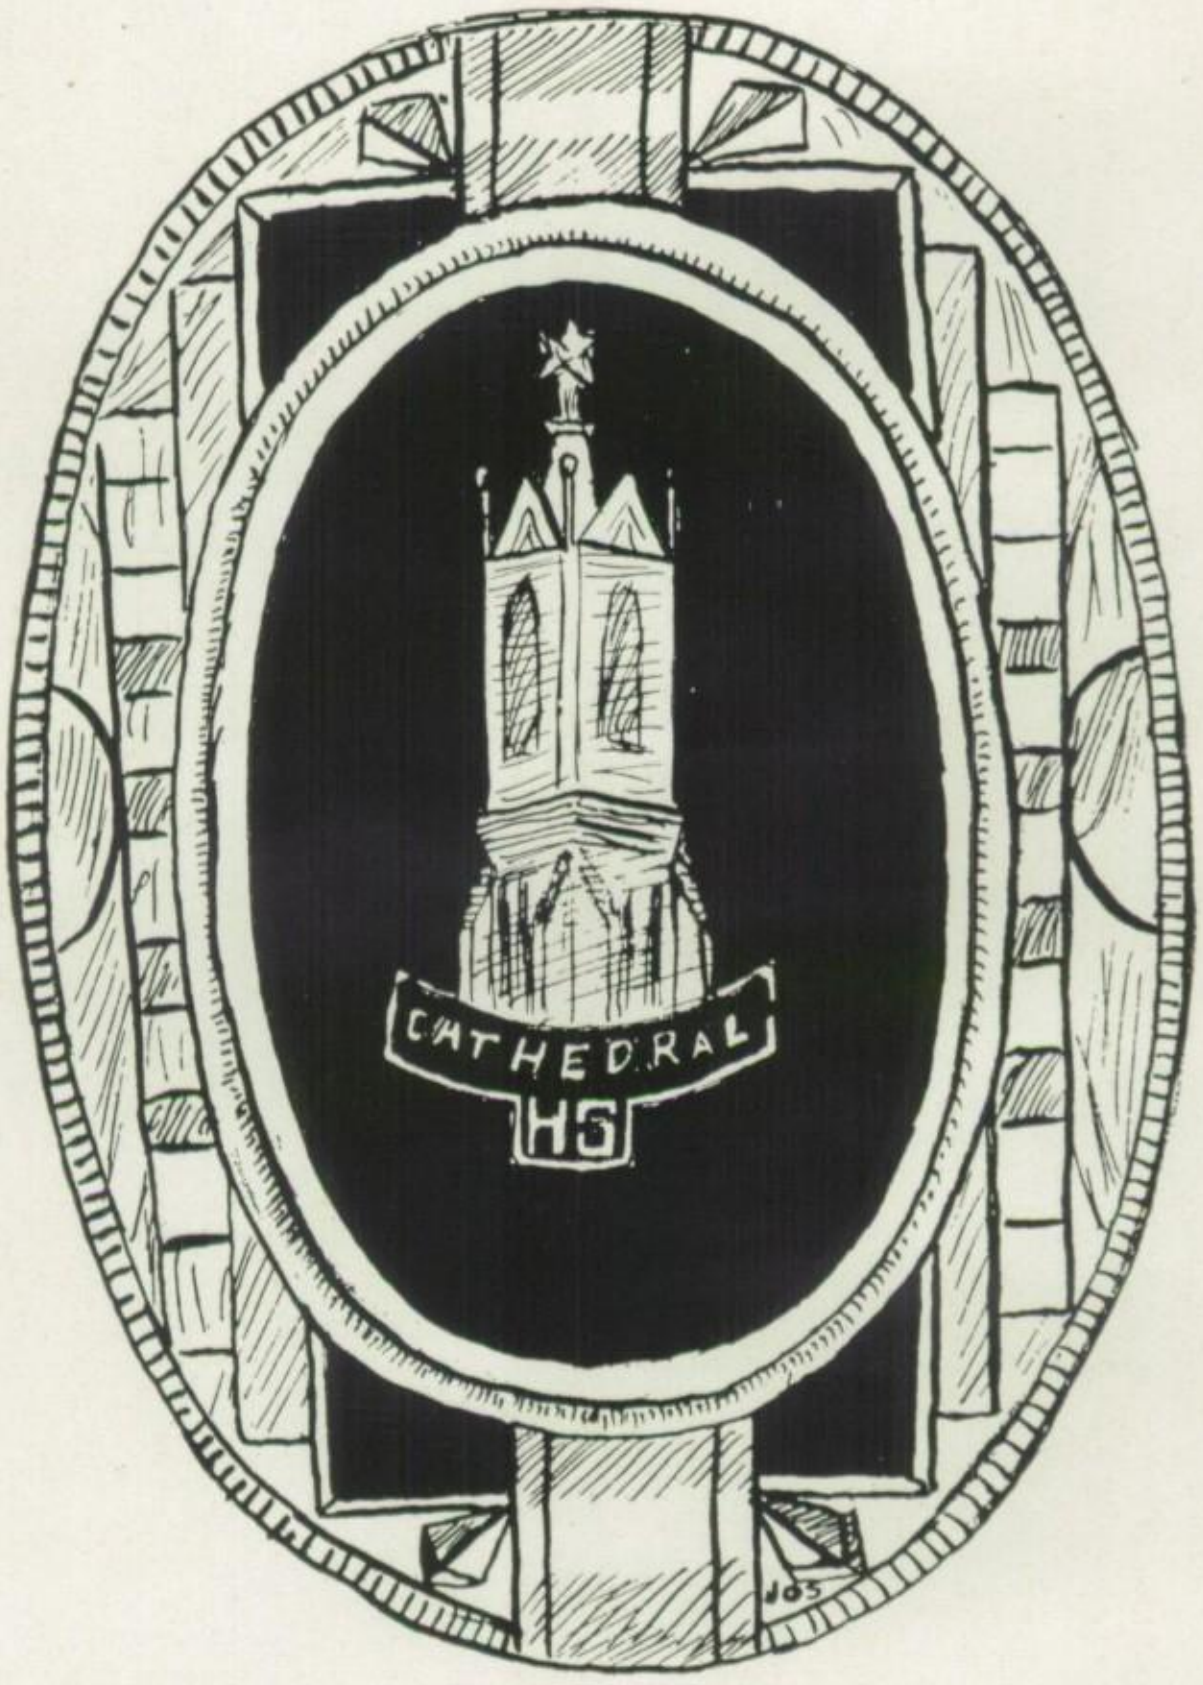
"What Virtue Dictates, Let Us Do"



Foreword

In this book, we have inscribed a true account of the history of our four years in high school. It is a simple record of the rapid passage of the years, containing the story of our scholastic endeavors, our athletic achievements, and our social activities.

Do not judge this work too hard, but regard it as an earnest attempt to record our youthful years. It is not intended to be a literary work, but a volume of memories. We give you this book to keep and to cherish, holding dear the memories contained.

MATTHEW F. BRADY, D.D.

Dedication

We dedicate this TOWER to the Most Reverend Matthew F. Brady, D.D., so that he may keep us in his memory even though he makes many new friends in his new work. For in the four years that we, as high school students, have known him we have grown to love him and we take this opportunity to express our deep gratitude for the interest he showed in us.

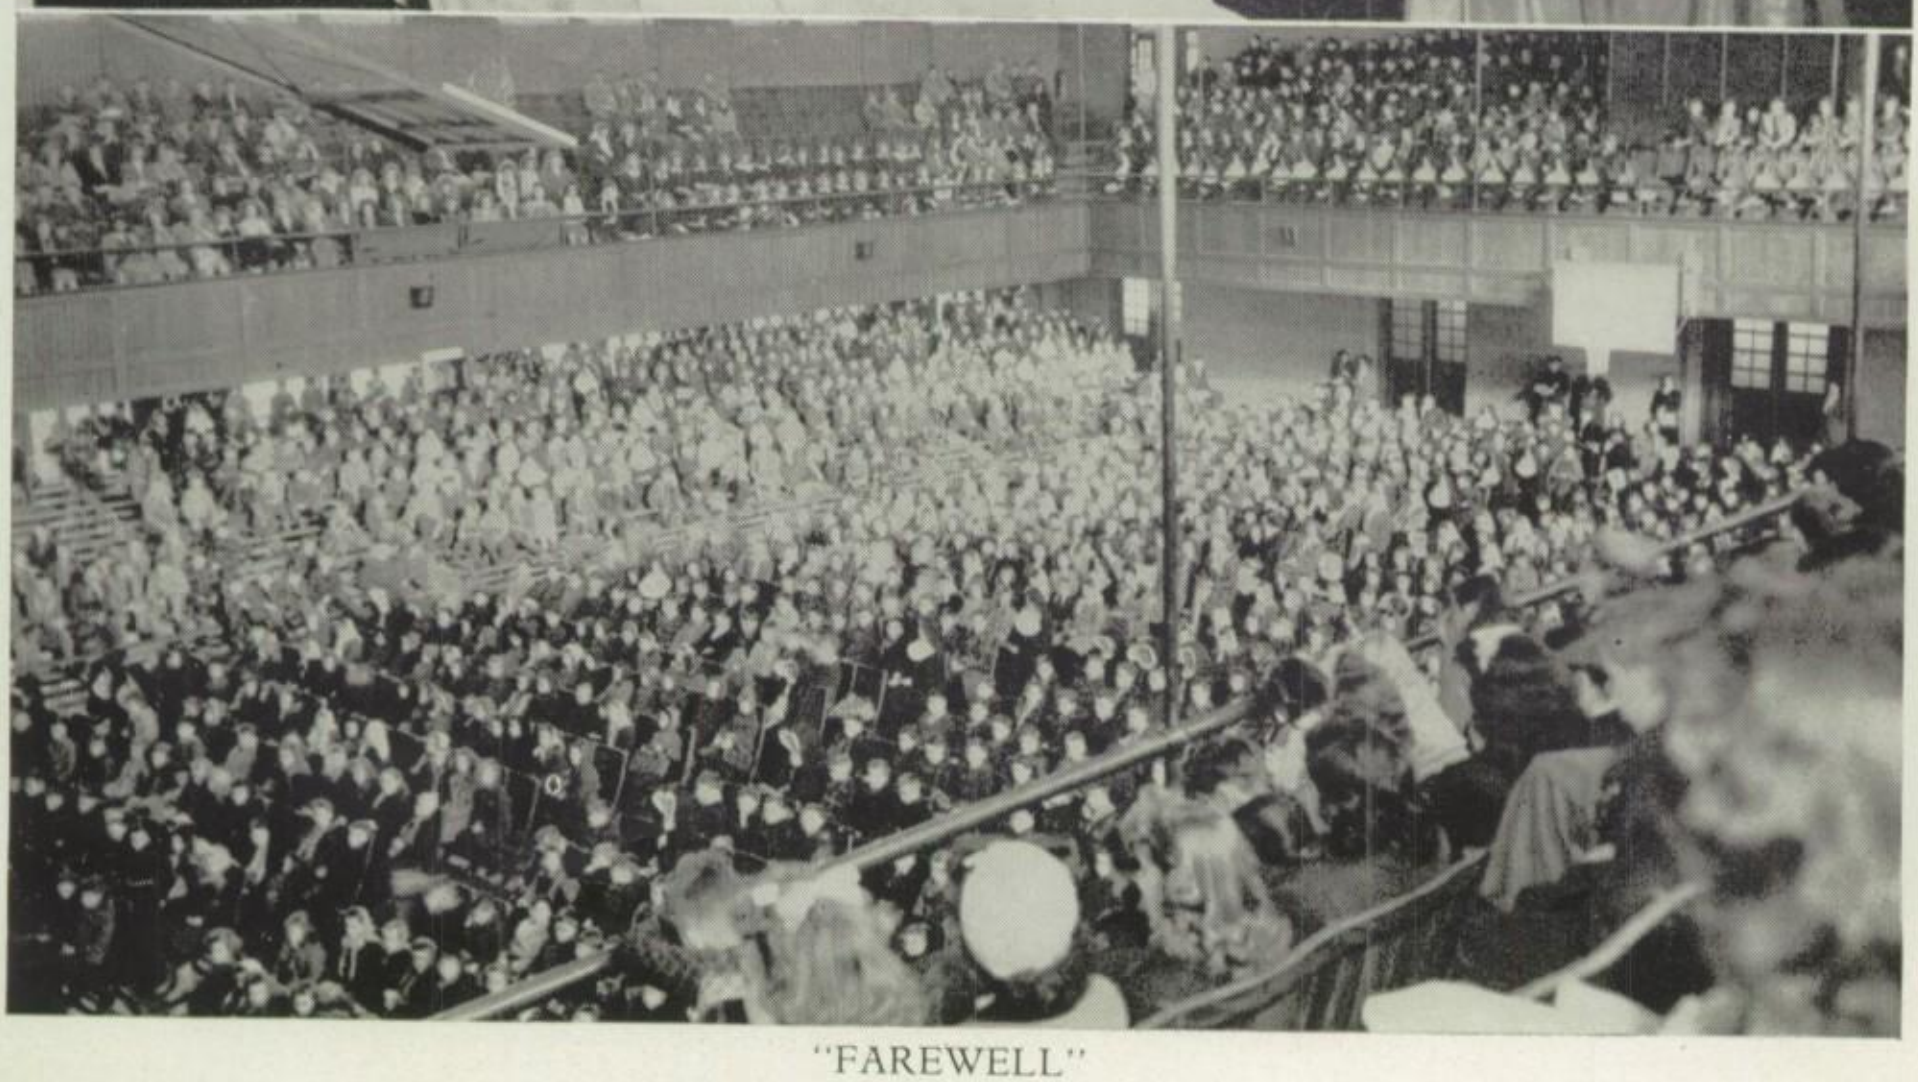
May we express our feeling for him as he, himself expressed it—"Only a river separates us geographically and yet it unites us, for its waters drain the mountains and valleys of both, even as sorrow and hope drain the emotions of these servants of both."

Six Years of Service

The Most Reverend Matthew Francis Brady, was the fourth Bishop to govern this diocese. Pastor of Saint Rita's Parish, Hampden, Connecticut, when appointed by Pius XI, to be Bishop of Burlington, October 26, 1938, by his Excellency, Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Titular Archbishop of Laodicea, Apostolic Delegate to the United States of America.

For the past six years his dynamic leadership has energized Catholicity here in our State. By his zeal in organizing our youth and other groups of laity, he has given unity and direction to the forces of Catholicism. He expanded the Vermont Catholic Charities organization to care for the poor and the unfortunate; established a Diocesan School Office for the purpose of co-ordinating and consolidating Catholic education; and he was fearlessly outspoken in defending the cause of the working man.

If any one of his labors were to be selected as outstanding, it would be his success in bringing the Church to the country people, especially by the many parishes and missions he established by his support of the program of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. His many accomplishments were facts familiar to all Vermonters.



"FAREWELL"

EDWARD F. RYAN, D.D.

Tribute To

Our Most Reverend Bishop

We, the class of 1945, pledge to you our fidelity, devotion, and obedience. Our association with you has been brief, but we gratefully express our appreciation for the spiritual training we have received under your guidance.

It is our fond hope that the future will find us faithful children of Holy Mother Church and close adherence to the principles which you hold so dear.

Right Reverend Monsignor

PATRICK C. BRENNAN, P.A., V.G.

Tribute To

Our Right Reverend Monsignor

It is small thanks that we can offer to you in expression of our appreciation for the tender fatherly interest you have shown toward us, during our four years with you. But we will always have memories of our four years with you and we gratefully acknowledge your interest in our moral. and intellectual welfare.

We will hold dear your friendship and try to follow the principles set forth by you in teachings and practice.

Reverend Joseph W. Joy

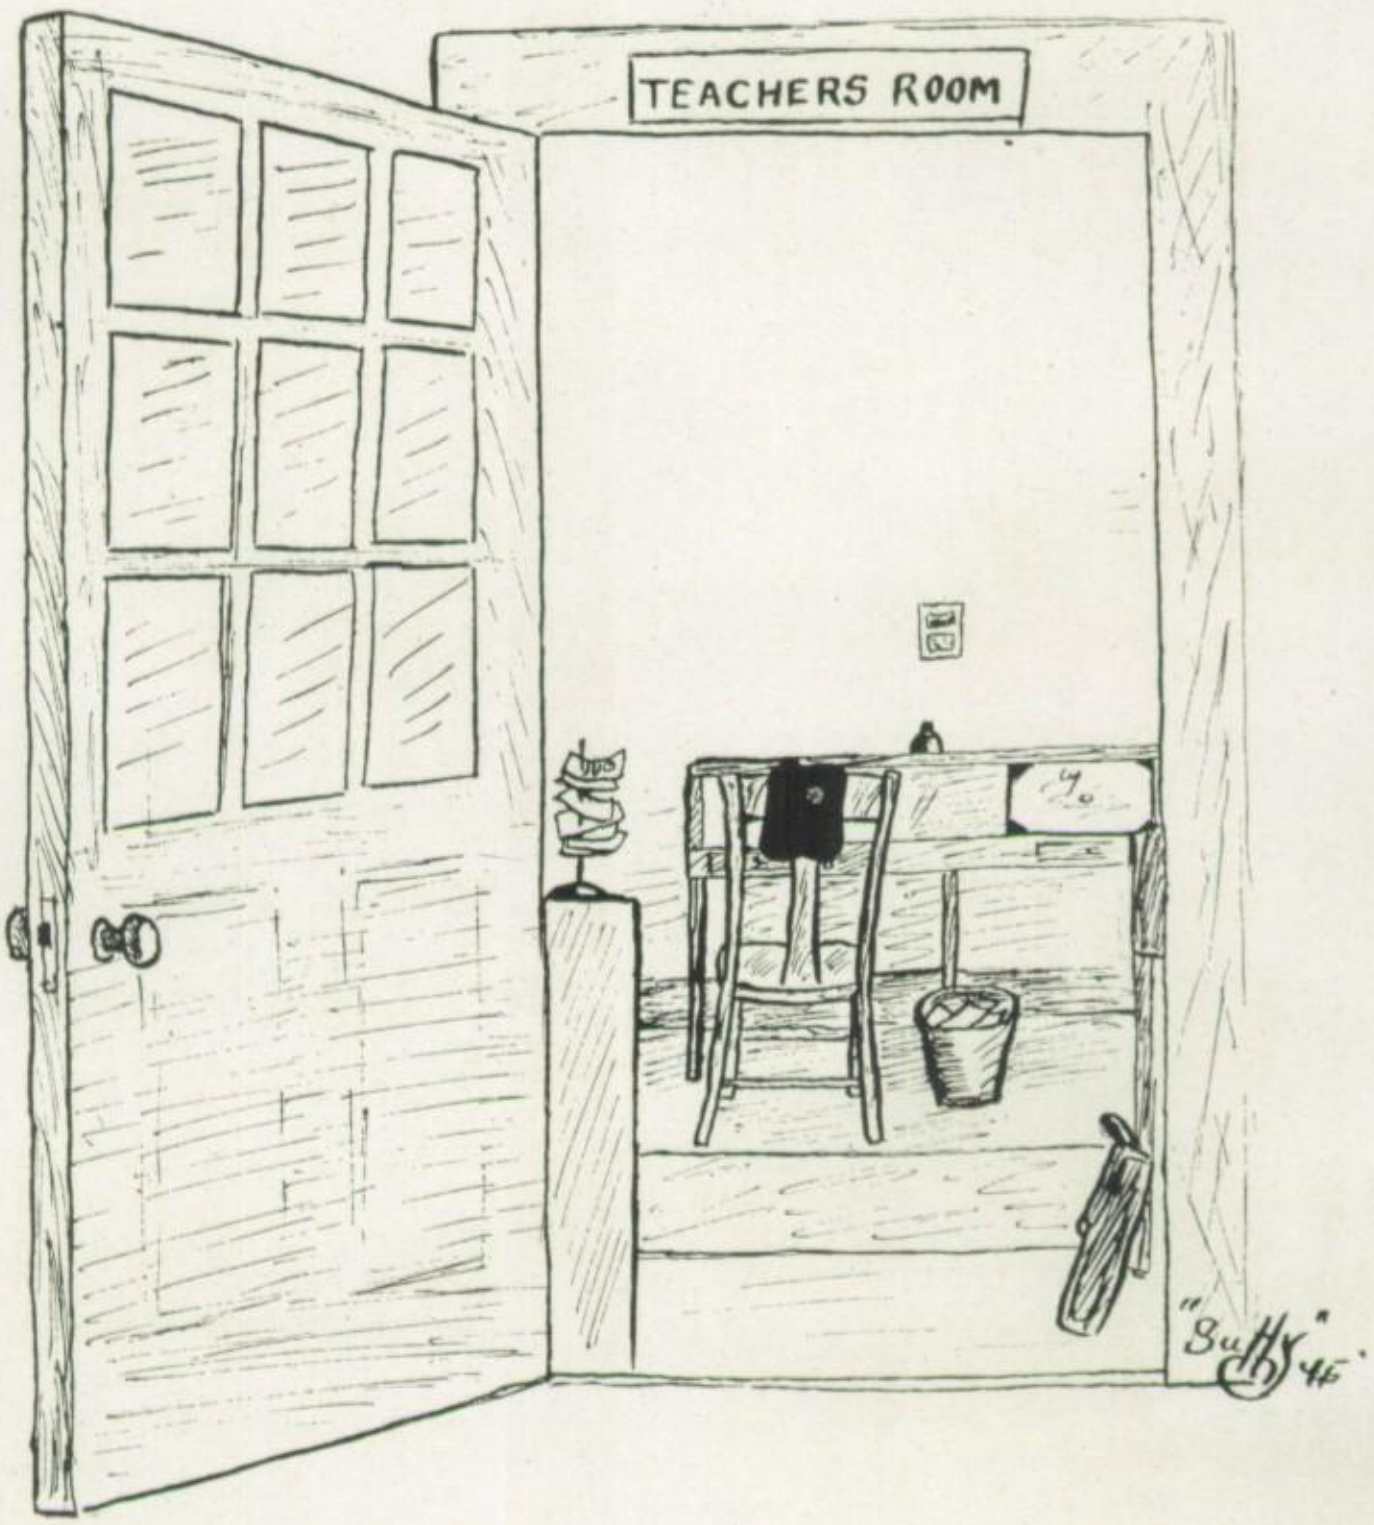
Tribute To

Our Principal

Father Joy, our friend and advisor during three years of high school, any attempt to express our appreciation would be very inadequate. We prefer to carry your qualities in our hearts than to reiterate them on this page.

It is your philosophy to teach by example rather than words, and we could do well to follow this example in our future life.

We write this humble tribute to show you that we respect and admire you, and that we have a deep affection for you.



FACULTY

Vale

It is difficult to express our appreciation for what you have done for us in few words. But we wish to extend our wishes for many happy years, teaching others the same Christian principles along with the regular curricula, just as you taught us. May we simply say that we are grateful and can never hope to adequately repay our debt to you.

In Memoriam

Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow,
Creeps in this petty race from day to day
To the last syllable of recorded time,
And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
The way to dusty death. Out, out, brief candle!
Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage
And then is heard no more; it is a tale
Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury,
Signifying nothing.

Valedictory

Tonight, we, as a high school class, have reached the conclusion of our scholastic career. There is always pleasure in accomplishment, in reaching a result, and there is gratification, yet sorrow in the thought that we have reached this completion.

Our school life has given us true Christian and moral ideals, and a start toward a method of independent thought. Feeling that we have been thus benefited, our thoughts turn to you, kind friends, in heartfelt gratitude for the educational advantages with which you have favored us.

Many who should be with us tonight to begin this new life are not here for they are engaged in the struggle to restore peace and justice to this war torn world. Although they are not able to be present we know that they are with us in spirit and prayers on this Commencement Night.

Your Excellency and Reverend Fathers, we are grateful for your presence here, since you show your interest in our welfare as you have ever shown it in the past. We shall always treasure the Christian teachings so often expounded to us by you and we ask your prayers that we may always be staunch adherents to the Faith.

Our gratitude is extended to our teachers for all that you have done. It is not in our power to repay you, but by our nobleness of character and fidelity to truth and virtue, we hope to reflect credit to your training and efforts.

To you, our parents, we wish to say that your sacrifices have not been unappreciated. You have succeeded in your endeavors to give us a sound Catholic education. We regret that we are unable to adequately express ourselves to you.

Classmates, we are separating into various walks of life in which we shall have many problems and difficulties to overcome. God alone knows what these will be, but regardless of our position in life let us not forget the teachings of our Alma Mater and let us follow the words of our Class motto—What virtue dictates, let us follow.

JAMES BRENNAN

Salutatory

Tonight it is my felicitous duty to extend to you in the name of the graduating class of 1945 our sincere and hearty greetings. This day, so long anticipated, has at last arrived and our hearts are swelling with happiness, yet we cannot feel somewhat sorrowful at the thought of leaving Cathedral. However, we shall try to keep this sadness from marring our last few hours together.

Our joy is increased by your presence here tonight for we know that you are participating with us in this ceremony which marks the culmination of our academic education.

It is difficult perhaps to realize that before each one of us lies a path unknown and uneven which must be paved by our individual footsteps. We are prepared to travel down this road with our heads high and our cup of ambition filled to the brim, in order that we might fulfill the mission which God has determined for us. Yes, we are ready to proceed down life's path with confidence, for our minds have been trained in the Christian principles of brotherhood, charity and morality. We are supported by the gift of faith and hope in God. Also the influence of Cathedral has uplifted our souls and urged us onward. With these to stand behind us we cannot fail.

We wish at this time to extend our thanks to his Excellency, our Bishop, and to welcome him as he assists at his first graduating exercises at Cathedral. Our thanks also go to our Reverend Fathers and to the members of the faculty for their never ending patience and efforts during our past four years. We can never repay them for what they have done, but will endeavor to reflect credit on them to the best of our ability in whatever walks of life we pursue.

Once again we welcome you, parents, teachers and friends who have assembled tonight to witness these exercises.

DOROTHY DION

Class History

As the time has come for us, the members of the class of '45 to pause amidst the long awaited preparations for commencement; as we gather together our credentials which serve as a proof of our having enjoyed four glorious years at Cathedral High, it is fitting that we review the events of these four years in order that the memory of our class may be preserved.

It was the year 1942 that a curious group of Freshmen entered the renowned portals of Cathedral High School. As no large gathering functions properly without a governing body we chose as our class officers to guide us through our first days at Cathedral, Thomas Tomasi, Teresa Valliere, Dot Dion and Wilma Murphy. We had often attended previous performances of Stunt Nite through the years, so it was with great enthusiasm that we put forth our talents in a night club scene, but, not being adequately adept in the art of "night clubbing," we were defeated by the more experienced upperclassmen. When Stunt Nite had come and gone, we turned our attentions to the TOWER Board Prom, our first semi-formal. Many of us attended it and had a grand time. We were fortunate in having our class represented in the band by "Ham" Ploof, Mary Hooper, June Duggan, Jim McNamara, Dot Dion, Chris Auer, Leah St. Peter, Agnes Collins, "Chuck" Lamere, and Norman Santerre.

In the field of sports Janet Rock was chosen Athletic Representative for the Girls' Basketball team while Jim Akey, Joe Malone, and Bernie St. Francis augmented the Junior Varsity.

As for the intellectual activities, we braved the thoughts of mid-years and finals, mustered our courage and came through with "flying colors." The worst was over. As Freshmen "we came, we saw, and we conquered." It was time for us now to put away our books and return in the Fall as experienced Cathedralites.

Returning as Sophomores, we found ourselves under the guidance of our new principal, Father Joy. During the summer vacation Father Sullivan had been commissioned as an Army Chaplain.

As our first official act we installed Jimmie O'Sullivan as class president with Jackie Perrault, Gene Morrissey, and Betsey Audette as subordinate officers. Again we launched into Stunt Nite activities. The less said about our second attempt to win glory in this annual extravaganza the better. We did not fair too well and quickly turned our attention to more important activities. Many of us as members of the band, orchestra, or glee clubs took part in the annual Music Festival. Two of our classmates, Jimmie Akey and Joe Malone were placed on the varsity basketball team. Chubby Moran, Joe Malone, Jim O'Sullivan, Gene Morrissey and Manager John McKenzie helped to establish a successful baseball team.

The condition of the world made it evident to us that we would soon be losing members of our class and before the end of our Junior year Don Dooley, Charles Lefebvre, Clement Marrier, Albert LaFrance, Stanley Hayden, Donald Gratton, Robert Langlois, Leo Norris, William Paquette, Donald Viens, Francis LaPointe, and Robert Touchette had all been inducted or volunteered their services for military training.

Assisting our worthy president, Gene Morrissey, were Dot Dion, Clement Marrier and Jimmy Brennan. This, our Junior year, was to be the highlight of our Stunt Nite career. Our plot consisted of a scene in the park centered around a pair of quarreling lovers, Kitty Martel and Paul Sherry, whose difficulties turned out all right in the end. For this worthy performance the judges presented us with second prize. What we lacked in theatrical success we made up for by our intellectual achievements in winning the inter-class debate from the Seniors. The re-organized Sodality presented a prom which was received with great enthusiasm. The Junior prom which was the crowning social event of the school year was held shortly after the Junior-Senior banquet tendered by the Mothers' Club.

The close of the summer recess brought us back for the last time to Cathedral. Many momentous things happened in the school year which ends with our departure. Our class, always radical in ideas, elected a new slate of officers. Dick Kelley was chosen to lead the way with Grace Taylor, "Chuck" Lamere and Lucy Berry as his able assistants. We, as sophisticated seniors, were endowed with the customary privileges of which we were quick to take advantage. Under the expert direction of Jimmy Brennan as editor-in-chief and "Chuck" Lamere as business manager, aided by other members of the board, our edition of the TOWER was well compiled and published.

It was this year which saw the organization of the Boys' Sodality at Cathedral. They met and elected the following officers: Jimmy McNamara, prefect, John McKenzie, vice-prefect, Jim Akey, secretary, Jim O'Sullivan, treasurer. May this organization grow in numbers and fidelity as the Girls' Sodality has!

As we turn our thoughts to the field of sports for 1944-45, we note that Cathedral took part in the annual Catholic tournament held in Boston and made a fine showing by defeating a "scrappy" Lawrence High quintet. Joe Malone, also was placed on the all New England team. Our Cathedral Five was captained by Jim Akey and managed by John McKenzie.

At Stunt Nite we presented an original idea of scenes from THE TOWER. Although our humble efforts were not deemed prizeworthy by the judges, at least we thought they were praiseworthy!

Among other events taking place the latter part of the year were an enjoyable Valentine dance sponsored by the Seniors; a prom given us by the members of the Junior class a banquet which we all enjoyed prepared for us by the ready, willing, and able members of our Mothers' Club; a field day held at Centennial Field for the entire student body with prizes, eats and "all the trimmings" which we certainly all enjoyed; and finally May 11, the Cathedral students took part in another "war-time" local music festival conducted under the auspices of the Lions' Club.

By May the class of '45 had lost six more members to Uncle Sam: "Ham" Ploof, John McMahon, Dick Schieb, Bill Lozon, Sparky Bassett, and Reggie Muir.

It is June 14! It would be a great mistake to say that the history of the class of 1945 has been written. Yes indeed, it is the members of our class and others like us, who will go on making history in the years to come. We hope and sincerely believe that as we sadly make our departure from these hallowed halls of Cathedral High School, each of us will remember and cherish fondly the four happiest years of our lives.

WILMA MURPHY

Class Prophecy

My mission as ambassador to England in June 1960 having been completed, I was to return to Washington for a conference with the President James Brennan and Secretary of the State Richard Kelley. As I waited at the airport I suddenly realized that it was fifteen years since my graduation from high school. Naturally I began to wonder about my classmates. During my reverie the plane landed and I was surprised to be greeted by Capt. Bill Lozon who was piloting the plane. I soon asked Bill if he ever saw any of our classmates. He helped to satisfy my wonderment by informing me of a big reunion to be held in Burlington the next week. I immediately assured Bill that I would be ready for any notification of this grand event.

Arriving at the White House I met Chubby Moran who had succeeded J. Edgar Hoover as the head of the F. B. I. and who took me to the President's conference room. I was admitted by the President's Secretary Shirley Cross. After completing my official business I left the White House and was walking down Pennsylvania Avenue when I met Senator James O'Sullivan from Vermont. We were more than delighted to see each other and could think of no better way of reviewing high school days than to attend the concert given by two members of the class of '45: Bernard Villemaire, pianist and Bernard Lavallee, violinist. Among the celebrities attending the concert we recognized Dot Furkey and Cathleen Griffin, stars from a famous New York Opera and Jim McNamara, the tenor made famous by the song "Why Do I Love You?". As we left the opera house we were greeted by Dr. Tom Tomasi who was attending a meeting of the American Medical Society of which he had recently been elected president. We at once congratulated Tom who said that Dr. Paul Sherry had also been elected to office, namely that of treasurer. Tom thought we would be interested to know that Marcy Angiers, Mary Gardner, Mary Abair, Chris Auer, Leah St. Peter and Pat Duggan were efficient nurses, heading the Vermont Nurses Association.

After saying "good-bye" to Jim I started back to the hotel but was amazed to see that D'Arcy Whalen had achieved his life-long ambition. D'Arce, now a strapping man, was ejecting a troublesome patron from Reggie Marvin's "Quick Lunch." Upon arriving at the hotel Ritzy-Ritz I encountered Betsy Audette who took me to her manager Dick Schieb. Dick told me that Elaine Paquette was his head telephone operator and Marie Nolin his efficient dietitian. I was most anxious to see these other members of my class but as I had just enough time to catch the midnight flyer I bade good-bye to Dick and asked him to remember me to them.

When the train stopped in New York wasn't I surprised to see "Ham" Ploof's band "The Jivvers" which numbered among its members Goo-Goo Goulet and Reggie Muir. The band was en route to Montreal to play for several engagements. "Ham" told me that Charlie Neary had just been appointed manager of the big Kresge's store in New York with Bob Wheel as his assistant. He also told me that Mary Strong, Kay Trudo, Barb Gardner, and Shirley Blondin were modelling in New York's shoppes. While we were talking we saw among the other passengers Jackie Perreault, radio star in the current hit "Jim's Other Wife." She told us that she was returning to Burlington to visit another classmate of high school days, Kitty Martel who was now married and quietly settled in life. Jackie called our attention to a newspaper which she had. On the sports page we saw that Fordham University coached by Jim Akey and Holy Cross coached by Bernie St. Francis had reached the finals in the Eastern Collegiate Basketball Tourney. Another sports highlight we noticed was that Sparky Bassett had succeeded in working his way to the top in the fight game. On turning the page we glanced up to see where Mary Farnham's book entitled "Men" was the current best seller.

Time passed so quickly in discussing our old times at Cathedral that we did not realize that we had now entered Burlington. Stopping at the station we saw "Fitzgerald, Barrett, and Santerre's" milk truck. As Jackie and I alighted from the train we met John McKenzie and Leo Kirk, his vice-president who were going to Chicago to attend the Meat Packers' Convention. As Jackie left us John and I began to talk. Our conversation turned to our high school days and to our classmates. John told me that Bob Brault and Joe Malone had been elected mayors of the Twin Cities Burlington and Winooski. While in Chicago John and Leo planned to visit John McMahon, a famous chemical engineer. The train for Chicago pulled into the station so I left the boys to continue to my office. As I hailed a taxi I was pleasantly surprised to be greeted by the smiling face of Earl Wilkinson, proprietor of the "City Taxi." As we passed the City Hall Auditorium we recognized June Duggan, Rose Dewyea, Theresa Blanchard and Mary McKenzie. Earl was quick to inform me that there was a lecture on good housekeeping given by Grace Taylor, and they, being progressive housekeepers had attended. Since Burlington had undergone many changes during my absence in England, Earl pointed out many stores which were of interest to me. Among these were the Princess Shop owned and operated by Bernie Choquette and Dot Dion. The girls employed Jane Boucher as model and Teresa Simays and Joyce Steady as stenographers. Chuck Lamere and Donald Martell were joint proprietors of a newsstand. Chuck had now reversed his slogan to "The Largest Store with the Smallest Variety." Collins' Drug Store had replaced Finnegan's. Leo was the pharmacist and Agnes the business manager. The Grand Union under the management of Lucy Berry was sponsoring a cooking school under the able direction of Claire Carpenter, an experienced housewife.

Then he turned down Pearl Street as he knew I would be interested in seeing the new Cathedral High built to accommodate 3000 students. I then recalled how crowded we had been during my senior year in school so I was doubly anxious to see it. Father Allen Hill had replaced Father Joy who was now pastor of the Cathedral parish. Geraldine Lavalley was director of the Glee Clubs and Janet Rock in charge of Girls' Athletics. James Gaudreau was employed as school doctor with Jean Perras and Shirley McGuire as his capable nurses.

Earl told me that Marianne Joseph was instructor of Mathematics at Vassar College, while Wilma Murphy was Dean of women at U. V. M. and Mary Hooper was the head of the Home Economics Department.

Arriving at my office I found that my secretary Josephine Nanna had piled my desk with unanswered mail. One letter marked personal caught my eye as I had an idea what it would be. Opening it, I was very pleased to find that the class of '45 was planning to hold an unusual reunion. For the past few years I had been unable to attend these meetings. As I gazed off into space I realized what an adventure it would be to see and to talk to these people from every walk of life who are always remembered for the trials and joys of those four best years in (high) school. The ringing of the bell by my secretary was a warning of the work that had to be accomplished. Somehow it did not seem like a burden when I saw it piled in front of me. The success of my fellow students of Cathedral spurred me on.

Class Will

We, the graduating class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-five of Cathedral High School, in the City of Burlington, State of Vermont, being of questionable sanity and nervous disposition, do hereby make, publish and declare this, our last will and testament, annulling all wills made heretofore.

We, therefore, bequeath as follows:

To Father Joy—We leave our grateful appreciation for his faithful guidance and interest in our class for these past three years.

To our Teachers—We wish to extend our thanks for their faithful and devoted service in our behalf, for their patience with us, and for their spiritual and intellectual aid.

To Mrs. Holcomb—We give our thanks for her splendid work, and wish her as much success in coming years.

To Dr. Lechnyr—We leave many vacancies. We hope that even with this loss he will be able to continue his fine work.

To Coach Pequignot—We send our best wishes for coming seasons.

To Mr. Hammond—We wish much success in the State Senate.

To Doris Lawrence—We leave the hall lights on so that she can get someone else to turn them off for her.

To Mr. Neary—We leave a new broom and dustpan, to keep up his good work.

To the Juniors—We leave our desks spic-n-span with one book in it "How To Grow Up In Nine Months."

To the Sophomores—We leave the jug with paper and pencil.

To the Freshmen—We leave our childish pranks.

To the Editor of next year's TOWER—Jimmie Brennan leaves a whole new year to get things started.

To next year's TOWER Board—This year's Board leaves their secret as to how they can do nothing for the first seven months and then do everything three weeks before the deadline.

To Walt Barron—Lyman Goulet leaves his cheerleader's somersault.

To Fred Rowley—Don Martell leaves his typing eraser to erase his memories.

To Lorraine Duclos—Jean Perras leaves her seat in Room B.

To Norman Deforge—Norman Santerre leaves his French book so that he can gain a better understanding of the French language.

To Dorothy Bouchard—Dot Furkey leaves her beautiful voice and her place in the Glee Club.

To Clifford Brissette—Chuck Lamere leaves his handy hook in the boy's coat room so that he can duck out of school in a hurry if he has to.

To Sparky Plunkett—Marie Nolin leaves her height.

To Jerry St. Germaine—Reggie Marvin leaves his golden voice to thrill thousands of women.

To Barbara Ann McKenzie—Teddy McKenzie leaves her ways and means of not getting a jug during study period.

To John Dubuc—Chris Auer leaves her mischievous ways and well-used books for Chemistry.

To Flo Laramie—Marcy Angier leaves her ability to chew gum and not get caught.

To Bernard Roy and Francis Barrett—Loe Kirk leaves his job of selling milk during recess.

To Paul Casey—Al Hill leaves his collection of broken fountain pens.

To Jean Audette—Dot Dion leaves her solo in "Heroic Overture" and a new non-squeakable reed for her clarinet.

To Jeanne Allaire—Bernie Choquette leaves her place and her broken test tubes in the Lab.

To Paul O'Connor—Bernie Villemaire leaves his Latin IV homework.

To Maxine Leary—Leah St. Peter leaves her privilege of leaving her kerchief home on a rainy day.

To Art Demag—Bernie Lavallee leaves his early morning task of getting to school on time each day.

To Genevieve Barone—Theresa Blanchard leaves her long walk home.

To Barbara Jaber—Joyce Steady leaves her secret of not getting a jug through four years of high school.

To Jean Polworth—Betsy Audette leaves her vim, vigor and vitality and also a box of vitamin pills.

To Bobby McKenzie—His brother John leaves him a driver's license and the use of a truck to carry chairs for Stunt-Nite and all other occasions.

To Jane Sherman—Mary Hooper leaves a book of tickets to next year's basketball games.

To Kathryn Gutchell—Theresa Simays leaves her secrets on how to look the youngest in the senior class.

To Theresa Gardner—Catherine Trudo leaves her ability to succeed in learning the names of all the great authors and their works.

To Art Moran—Chubby Moran leaves his privilege to argue with Sister Louise about the Irish and the French.

To Danny Barry—Earl Wilkinson leaves his unstable skill of blowing glass bubbles in Chemistry Class, so that he may more easily discourage the teacher.

To Jimmy Fitzpatrick—D'Arcy Whalen leaves his ability to look like a freshman through all four years of high school.

To Arline O'Hare—Bill Murphy leaves her pointers on how to be tall.

To Norma Pizzagalli and Harold Thomas—Kitty Martel and Paul Sherry leave their ability to become big hits in Stunt-Nite.

To Munn Boardman—Jimmy McNamara leaves his cigarette ration card from Abraham's.

To Pete Carney—Jim O'Sullivan leaves a gross of razor blades and a book of instructions for use while an upperclassman.

To a group of ambitious Juniors who have the time—The Junior Sodality Spotlite staff leaves their success to carry on.

To Jack Farnham—His sister Mary Jane leaves a book of instructions on how to be good and stay out of jug.

To Barb Miller—Shirley Cross leaves her secret on how to be on the Junior Sodality Spotlite staff and still lead a normal life.

To Kenny Kane—Jimmie Akey leaves his place as Captain of the Basketball team.

To Norb Murphy—Bob Wheel leaves his title of Mr. Zoot Suit of the Senior class.

To the 1946 TOWER photographers—Dick Kelley and Janet Rock leave several drawers full of slightly used negatives.

Signed and sealed this 14th day of June.

LOUISE GELINEAU

President's Address

Once again the curtain of time falls to close out an era from our lives. Four years ago as the curtain rose, we began our high school. Now we leave Cathedral to face the world.

In reminiscing on our past four years we can see much happiness intermingled with sorrow, both of which aid in implanting an everlasting impression of our high school days.

We realize that the road ahead of us is long and difficult, but regardless of the state of the world, we feel that during the past four years we have been strengthened sufficiently both spiritually and intellectually to meet any crisis which the world may thrust upon us. We know that this preparation was possible only through our teachers and benefactors.

We hereby extend our heartfelt thanks to Bishop Brady who was our spiritual father for our first three years, to Bishop Ryan who we feel will very ably continue in the footsteps of his predecessors, to Monsignor Brennan for his kindness and sympathetic understanding of all our needs, to Father Joy for his wise counsel and guidance at all times, to the faculty for their splendid example and untiring efforts in our behalf, and finally to the most important; our parents who by their sacrifices have made it possible for us to obtain a Catholic education.

On the completion of our four years at Cathedral High School we can only hope that the future classes of Cathedralites will obtain as much happiness and knowledge as we have done in this school so dear to the heart of each one of us. Our memories of our Alma Mater are dearer to us because of the hearty cooperation and friendly participation of you, the underclassmen, in all of our activities. As Seniors may you receive the same enthusiastic support of the student body and may you graduate, not as a group of service stars but as a class which has within its heart the confidence that you are ready to meet the future whatever it may be. And above all may God's graces be always with you.

Class Nite

"Class Nites" for us will be no more. For four years, we have participated in this colossal event of the year, and now as we leave, always, our memories will recall the thrill of those hapyy times.

There is a saying that, "He, who rests on his laurels, rests perilously," but, we think we will be safe as remembering ourselves as participants, for we never won many laurels, a second place in our Junior year, being the highlight of our career. In our last year, we put on a fitting act. With the "TOWER," as our theme, we put on acts representing different pages in the yearbook. Jimmy McNamara, our singing editor and master of ceremonies, introduced each new act and pleaded for "paid-up ads."

Somehow, we failed, but we had done our best and with that fact, we consoled ourselves.

The Juniors walked off with first honors with their "Soda Fountain Scene," the highlight of the act being a "solid" swing band, under the direction of Glenn Irwin.

The Sophomores won second prize with their original interpretation of a "Nut House."

The Freshmen turned the clock back to Vaudeville times, and did very well for beginners.

Class Nite is a tradition at Cathedral, which we earnestly hope will never be changed, for it brings out the fine spirit of every Cathedralite.

The C. C. C.

This year, a committee, the "Creative Construction Committee," as it was called, was formed to reconstruct the "Scout House."

The whole lower floor previously used by the Boy Scouts, had already been equipped with a piano and necessary equipment for Glee Club and Choir rehearsals.

The upstairs, the former Sodality rooms, were entirely rejuvenated and redecorated for use by the members of the TOWER Board, and the members of the Faculty. Much was done to improve the rooms and many good times were had, as the work proceeded slowly, but surely.

The work was completed just before Christmas, and a housewarming party, complete with dinner, Christmas tree, and music for dancing was enjoyed by the members of the committee. We hope that in future years these rooms will be the scene of many more good times.

Proms

As a fitting climax to the many excellent proms held this year, the Juniors sponsored a semi-formal on the twenty-ninth of May. The auditorium was decorated in a spring motif of pink and yellow. This was the second semi-formal of the season, the first being sponsored by the Girls' Sodality. The color scheme was in honor of the Blessed Virgin, her statue in a garden arbor, being the center of the decorations was surrounded by blue and white streamers forming the letter "M."

Many socials were given by Father Joy and also the four classes. The two most important class dances were the Hallowe'en masquerade, decorated appropriately, given by the Juniors, and a TOWER Board dance given by the Senior Class. Something new in the line of entertainment was introduced at this dance. In one corner a spine tickling fortune telling booth was set up complete with crystal ball and vanishing lights.

Music in 1945

As in years gone past, Cathedral has again proved itself and taken a high place among Vermont musical institutions.

This year the Glee Club presented a fine program in honor of Bishop Brady's Farewell. Saint Patrick's Day and the State Festival again proved the ability of the students.

The Orchestra turned in many creditable performances and maintained its high standards. This year they provided entertainment for graduation.

The Band maintained its excellent record of the past. Many excellent concerts were turned in, among them Decoration Day at the U. S. O. and also St. Patrick's Day. As usual their basketball record has been maintained.

We extend many thanks to our Directors for their efforts in aspiring the students to such excellent musical achievements.

Field Day

Thursday, May 9, was a big day for the students of Cathedral High School. The annual field-day picnic was held at Centennial Field. One could not exactly say it was an A-1 day, but that did not keep the crowd away—there was a splendid showing.

The band was present to add to the gaiety of the event. The Mother's Club helped with the ice cream and soda.

Father Joy and Doris Lawrence were right in there pitching for the entertainment of the crowd. They started by having a track and field meet for the boys and girls. The girls had a 50-yd. dash, 100-yd. dash, 44 relay, sack race, three-legged race, potato race, running broad jump, obstacle race, and baseball throw. The boys took part in a 50-yd. dash, 100-yd. dash, 220-yd. dash, 880-yd. relay, three-legged race, sack race, high jump, running broad jump, obstacle race, 12-lb. shot put and baseball throw. This kept everyone busy having fun.

Due to the rain no finals were held in the races and therefore no winners were announced. As the great poet once said, "Into each life some rain must fall." So it did!—about the middle of the afternoon, but this didn't stop some of the racers. Chubby Moran was right out there on the field with the rain pouring down on him while playing ball. There was a mad dash for a few cars that were there and before we could say "Jack Cobin," everyone had taken for shelter.

All in all, it turned out to be a real day of fun for everybody. Many thanks to Father Joy who made this possible.

Green Mountain Girls' State

This year Girls' State again took place, after an absence of a year, at Vermont Junior College in Montpelier. In times like these the experience gained from a week at Girls' State proves quite valuable. If government is to prosper, it must be known by every future adult citizen. Through the generosity of the American Legion and the Cathedral High School Mothers' Club we were able to attend. We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation to both organizations and hope that they continue in their good work. High schools all over the state were represented. From Cathedral High School there were:

BETSY AUDETTE ..... State Auditor

MARY HOOPER ..... State Speaker of the House

There were excellent talks on civic and civilian affairs by Governor and Mrs. Wills, and many other well-known speakers, such as, Mrs. Marjorie Conzelman. One of the many bills passed by the Senate and House was to award a certificate of appreciation to Mrs. Wills, for her grand co-operation. This was to be hung in her home and was signed by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and Speaker of the House, from Girls' State.

Green Mountain Boys' State

As in previous years through the generosity of the American Legion, Cathedral boys had the opportunity of attending Boys' State. This year it was held again at Norwich, since its schedule left a week free for the use of the American Legion.

Its main purpose is to instill in the minds of the youth the fundamentals of democratic government. Those who attended benefited by this training and also had a good time among new friends.

They were:

BERNARD MORAN ..... State Auditor

RICHARD KELLEY ..... Senator

JAMES MCNAMARA ..... Senator

THOMAS FITZGERALD .....

JAMES BRENNAN ..... Town Agent

THOMAS TOMASI .....

EUGENE MORRISSEY ..... Town Grand Juror

Debates

Several weeks ago the four classes were pitted against each other in a great battle of words.

In the first debate, the Seniors, taking the affirmative side of the question, and the Juniors, the negative argued on the topic: "Resolved: That the Voting Age Should Be Lowered to Eighteen." It was difficult for the judges to decide which team was the better, but their decision was finally in favor of the negative side.

On the following day the student body listened to the two lower classes argue their question "Resolved: That There Should Be One Year of Post-War Compulsory Military Training." The Freshmen proved themselves adept in this form of speaking and we wish them much success in the future.

The final throw-off between the two winning teams took place May 29. This time the topic chosen was "Resolved: That the Great Powers Alone Should Take Part in Post-War Planning." The affirmative side of the issue was handled by the Juniors and the negative, by the Freshmen. The members of both teams proved themselves to be adept debators, but the decision of the judges favored the underclassmen.

Father Joy presented the members of the winning team with gold medals.

Junior-Senior Banquet

After much deliberation as to whether the banquet and the prom should be held on the same night, it was finally decided to hold them at different times. The banquet was scheduled for May 24.

The efforts of the Mothers' Club were shown by a wonderful "Chicken" supper aptly prepared. We realize the work that the Mothers put into this and we wish to take this opportunity to thank them.

The students of both upper classes were very jolly throughout the whole meal. One group tried to outdo the other in singing.

After the meal we had short speeches respectively by our pastor, Monsignor Brennan and by Mr. Hammond, who were introduced by our principal, Father Joy. During the introductions Father Joy noticed that one of our former classmates, Floyd Handy, who is now in the army, had just come in. Father surprised everyone by asking him to be guest speaker. Floyd was rather at loss for words and all he could say to everyone about his experiences was "I think they had better find out for themselves."

Sodality Spotlite

This school year of 1945 has interested the whole student body with many activities. One of the most successful highlights was the Sodality Spotlite, written, typed and published by the staff. More issues were sold than in previous years.

We wish next year's staff success and we hope they find as much enjoyment, as we found, in editing our Spotlite.

MUSIC

A Message from

Dr. Lechnyr

Another year and another parting of the ways. Graduation always takes a heavy toll from our music groups—members who are hard to replace.

Your four years at Cathedral have been very fruitful years and as you leave us for other fields—remember the happy moments music provided for you—and as I say "Good-bye" and my best wishes to you in the years to come let me close with these few lines—

"For the common things of every day,
God gave men speech in the common way,
And He gave to the poet words to reveal
The deeper things hen think and feel.
But for heights and depths no word could reach,
God gave men MUSIC, the soul's own speech."

Our Directors

A Message from

Mrs. Holcomb

This has been a banner year for us, with that much coveted "time during school hours" in which to sing up and down the scales and oftentimes around them.

The seniors have been true to the last and we will miss their cheery personalities and fine assistance—but as experience has taught us, we know that the juniors will step into the senior groove with all the assurance of their predecessors to keep the colors flying for Cathedral High.

My fond remembrances follow the seniors along their chosen paths.

Varsity Basketball

Immediately after the class basketball league, Coach Pequignot, the great-factor of our success in athletics, issued a call for recruits.

Among those who answered this call were such veterans as, Captain-elect Akey, Malone, Croto and Fitzgerald, of our 1943-44 team, and in addition to these men, the following newcomers, St. Francis, Kane, Ross, O'Sullivan, McCarthy and Daigneault reported and proved themselves capable of holding a varsity position.

The team was weakened considerably by the loss of "Rip" Collins, veteran center, "Art" Chicoine, forward and "Buck" Lefebvre, guard, to the service and Ronnie Crosby by graduation.

The Indians under the watchful eye of Coach Pequignot, had a successful season. By topping Burlington High School twice, the little Indians copped the city championship.

With four victories and two defeats over parochial schools, Cathedral was chosen to represent Vermont in the New England Catholic tournament, held at Boston.

The LITTLE

Varsity Record

C. H. S.—27
Rutland—39

The Little Indians dropped their second game of the season to the Rutland Red Raiders, sparked by Colenback. Although the score indicated an easy victory for Rutland, the Little Indians were never outfought.

C. H. S.—33
Rutland—37

The Little Indians again fell victims to the Rutland aggressors, which proved to be one of the best games of the season. "Bernie" St. Francis topped the Indians' score by contributing 15 points for his night's work.

C. H. S.—31
B. F. A.—41

The Indians opened the Northern League by dropping a fast game to the "Green and Gold" of St. Albans. Captain Akey was high for Cathedral with 10 points.

C. H. S.—27
Spaulding—28

Cathedral was nosed out by the "Crimson Tide" of Barre, in a fast game. Captain Akey again was high with 9, while Malone and Fitzgerald followed closely with 8 each.

INDIAN

C. H. S.—27
B. H. S.—19

With Captain Akey leading the scoring, the "Redmen" "battled" and "scalped" the "Seahorses" from the hill. Kane and Malone did excellent work in handling the defensive battle while Akey poured in 15 points for the Indians.

C. H. S.—26
W. H. S.—25

A thriller from the start to the finish. The Little Indians in an overtime period topped Winooski by the close margin of 26-25. The credit for this game can be given to "Kenny" Kane, sophomore sensation, who contributed 11 points.

C. H. S.—20
Montpelier—34

Cathedral dropped this game to a strong Montpelier team. The Indians seemed unable to click and were easily taken. Montpelier featured the highest scoring forecourt in the state, Garback, Falacci, and Pierce.

C. H. S.—24
B. F. A.—29

The Indians tried with everything in their power, but couldn't overcome the aggressors from B. F. A. The score indicated an exciting game, and this is just what it was. They were overcome in the closing minutes of play.

C. H. S.—21
Spaulding—48

After strenuous workouts the Little Indians were still unable to enter the winning column, they dropped their second game with Spaulding and were easily outclassed by the "Crimson Tide," who won the State Championship.

C. H. S.—31
B. H. S.—28

The Little Indians turned the tables on the favored "Seahorses," to enter the winning column again. Sparked by Captain Akey, who tossed 11 points and Malone and Kane with 8 and 6, respectively, the Cathedral boys rode wild.

C. H. S.—31
St. Mary's—25

Traveling to St. Albans, Cathedral defeated St. Mary's in a game which was close until the final quarter. "Bernie" St. Francis led the attack by dropping in 15 points. "Bernie" in his first year of varsity ball showed up well.

C. H. S.—28
Winooski—19

Cathedral again topped the Winooski boys by a score of 28-19. The score was evenly divided with no player being outstanding.

C. H. S.—18
Montpelier—45

Traveling to the Capital City, the Indians again fell victims to the murderous scoring attack with which the the Montpelier High School cut loose. The Indians were unable to click, and found it difficult to get accustomed to the narrow floor.

C. H. S.—34
M. S. J.—42

After winning their first contest with M. S. J., the Little Indians fell victims to the revenge of the "Green Wave." This game proved to be one of excitement. The Indians could not come from behind to win the game, although they outscored the "Green Wave" in the final two quarters.

C. H. S.—39
Alumni—19

The Little Indians opened the 1944-45 season with a victory over the strong Alumni team. The score was evenly divided, Ross leading with 8, followed closely by Malone with 7.

C. H. S.—34
St. Mary's—21

In the first Interscholastic contest, Cathedral overpowered St. Mary's of St. Albans. Outstanding player of the evening was Leo Croto, whose total was 14.

C. H. S.—52
Enosburg Falls—19

Cathedral easily overpowered Enosburg Falls by a large margin. Leo Croto again led the attack with 10, while followed closely by Ross with 9.

C. H. S.—26
St. Michael's—34

Cathedral faltered against first rate competition with its first loss of the season to St. Michael's of Montpelier. Ross and Kane led the attack with 7 each.

C. H. S.—30
St. Michael's—20

Cathedral gained revenge by topping the St. Michael's Boys with an oppressive victory. The scoring was led by Tommie Fitzgerald who accounted for 12.

C. H. S.—31
M. S. J.—30

The enemy threw a scare into the Indians' camp by keeping pace with the Little Indians until the closing seconds. Capt. Jim Akey and Leo Croto led the attack with 11 and 10, respectively.

Catholic Tournament

Having become Catholic Champs, the Indians headed for Boston to play in the annual New England Catholic Tournament.

Cathedral drew Central Catholic for their first game, and to the surprise of most of the Burlington fans, came out on top by six points. Great credit for this goes to "Joe" Malone, whose defensive play was outstanding and although a guard he dropped in seven points.

"Bernie" St. Francis scored 12 points and without this the Cathedral cause would have been lost.

The excellent coaching of Jules Pequignot is the most determining factor which enabled this victory.

Entering into the semi-finals, Cathedral met St. John's of Worcester. Cathedral gave them a merry battle and made them work to the last. Although St. Francis, Malone, and Kane did their best by scoring 10, 9 and 8 points respectively, it was not enough.

At the end of the game, the score was 37-32 in favor of St. John's. As the score indicates it was an excellent game and the Burlington fans missed one of the year's best.

"Joe" Malone was chosen "All New England Catholic Tournament Center." "Joe" was very deserving, his play in the tournament was of the best. He worked and fought hard and showed excellent sportsmanship.

Good luck to you "Joe" and may we offer our congratulations.

Junior Varsity

The Junior Varsity under the tutelage of Coach Louie Merola has a successful season although playing one of the toughest and largest schedules that a little "Little Indian" team has played in a long time.

Coach Merola's stars were Joe Shanks, Dick Hammond, Art McCann, Lucky Barone, Dick Corey, Mac Wheel, Mickey Grogan, Dick Fitzgerald, Art Merola, Bob MacKenzie, Sonny Bove, Jimmy Croker, Bob Reuschel, Sammy Lawrence, and Sonny Carty.

Coach Merola showed great promise of being a good coach and should turn out some teams in the future as his team won twelve games and lost ten.

MISS DORIS LAWRENCE

Girls' Basketball

This year about forty girls turned out for basketball, which shows that the interest in this sport is becoming popular among the girls in the school.

Only four games were played to arouse the interest of the girls. Next year they hope to have a regular schedule of games. In the four games played, they tied one and lost three, but the games were all close, and it was lack of experience that defeated them. There was great team work, which is essential in basketball, and without this, the girls would not have had the scores as high as they were. A good practice season was enjoyed by all.

On February 21, Cathedral traveled to Winooski, to open their first game against an outside school. The team put up a hard fight, being ahead 20-19 in the third quarter, but were defeated in the closing minutes of the game by the Winooski girls 24-21. Janet Rock led the list of high scorers with the able assistance of the guards, J. Sherman, A. McKenzie and C. DeVarney.

The next game was with B. H. S. JV's. This was really an exciting game; and after good playing from each team, the score was tied at 18-18. Janet Rock again high scorer. Cathedral played a return game with B. H. S. and were defeated by the Seahorses in a fast game 33-27.

"Flo" Laramee showed good playing and was high scorer in this game.

Baseball

This year's team is composed mostly of underclassmen. Among the veterans returning are Gene Morrissey, Joe Malone, Chubby Moran, Jim O'Sullivan and Bob Wheel. All these held berths on the 1944 team. The other material looks promising, Lew Barbeau, Don Shanks, Gerald Daigneault, Allen Mitchell, David Bixby, Walt Moulton, Dick Corey, Kenny Lapan, and Lucky Barone, are all seeking starting positions.

The pitching staff is composed of: Jim O'Sullivan, Kenny Kane, Bobby Rueschel, Bernie LaValley, and George Daigler.

Those likely to gain berths on the starting nine will be Barbeau (catcher), Bixby or Moulton (first), the keystone sack will be held by Joe Malone; Joe Shanks, corner. The outfield post, Bob Wheel, Allen Mitchell, Gene Morrissey, Lucky Barone.

Leah St. Peter—with a feather cut

Ham Ploof—with curly hair

Theresa Simays—making any noise

Jim Akey—not a star

Kitty Martel—taking a back seat

Bernie Villemaire—hep-to-the-jive

D'Arcy Whalen—any taller

Mary Abair—smiling

Dot Furkey—without her voice

Janet Rock—at home

"Bill" Murphy—not herself

Dick Kelley—not dancing

Joyce Steady—not helping out

Gene Morrissey—not smiling

Chubby Moran—serious

Jim McNamara—doing Latin!

Mary Hooper—having nothing to do

The Seniors, A to Z

A is for Akey, Abair and Auer.
B is for Brennan, editor of our TOWER.
C is for Carpenter, a tall young lass.
D is for Duggan's, both in our class.
E is for Elaine, who plays measure by measure.
F is for Furkey, her voice is a pleasure.
G is for Griffin, our Stunt Nite sender.
H is for Halloween (do the Seniors remember?)
I is for Intelligence, we'll never be surpassed.
J is for Janet, she'll never be outclassed.
K is for Kelley, the Senior president.
L is for a room, one class residence.
M is for M's, in which we abound.
N is for Neary, known for his sounds.
O is for O'Sullivan, his art is the best.
P is for Perreault, she sings with a zest.
Q is for Quizzes, we have quite a few.
R is for Roberts, of which we have two.
S is for Sherry, at meetings he blabs.
T is for Tomasi, a whiz in the lab(s).
U is for Us and our dignified ways.
V is for Vacations, remembered always.
W is for Whalen, whose fame will soon spread.
X is for Xams, the "things" we all dread.
Y is for This YEARBOOK, which they'll never forget.
Z is for Zeal "we" have plenty, you bet.

A Farewell to Seniors

At this time of the year, our thoughts turn to you, our departing Seniors, and before you leave our midst, we wish to give you this parting thought, namely, that true greatness of life is not so much the result of great effort as of great power, and that power is God.

We, as Juniors, have watched you, the Seniors, in your last three years at Cathedral, working untiringly for that day when you might, guided by this power, the grace of God, go out and take your place in the world. You have labored at Cathedral to learn how to acquire what is necessary for your success in life. We are sure that now, looking back on your four years, you feel well repaid for all your efforts because you have finally passed this first milestone of life successfully through the good Catholic education you have received at Cathedral High School. We sincerely hope that what you have been taught will stay with you and help you overcome any obstacle that might arise.

We will remember you in our prayers, and we know that your thoughts, wherever you may be, will turn, occasionally, to the four happy years you spent here. Guided by our Catholic faith, we bid you a fond farewell know that our common love of God and neighbor will bring us all together again, if not in this world, in the next for all eternity.

In Appreciation

We, the class of '45 dedicate this page to all those merchants, professional men, and individuals, who have advertised in this book.

We realize and appreciate the fact that without this co-operation and interest shown by them, publication of this book would be impossible.

Therefore, with deep appreciation and to show our gratitude we urge all who read this book to patronize and support the firms represented on the following pages.

A record to be proud of. All through High School "Chuck" Lamere opened our store before 6 a.m. Winter, summer, rain, snow made no difference to "Chuck". Never had to be awakened to start his day. When the 5 a.m. train arrived at the station Chuck was there to get his papers. Then to the store to open.

Graduating this year starts a new field for Chuck. His faithfulness to our store was an integral part of our success.

Our hope is that the future holds a suitable reward.
